Teachers may be assigned to teach up to 6 blocks/classes a year under the following terms:

1. Teachers in the following departments may be assigned 6 blocks/classes a year: Broadcast Technologies, Business & Computer Education, Design & Applied Technology, Family & Consumer Science, Fine Arts (Art, Dramatics & Film, and Music), Health & Physical Education, and Special Education.

2. Teachers in all other departments from those identified in Paragraph 1. above, who were hired on or before May 9, 2017, may be assigned 6 blocks/classes a year, and will be paid 20% additional pensionable salary for each day that the 6th block/class is scheduled to meet, up to 90 days. This premium will be excluded from the calculation of health benefits contributions. Volunteers will be solicited and considered before an assignment is made.

3. Teachers in all other departments from those identified in Paragraph 1. above, who were hired after May 9, 2017, may be assigned 6 blocks/classes a year.

4. Teachers in Paragraphs 1. and 3. above, when assigned to teach 6 blocks/classes in a year, will receive two (2) curriculum days to work on school-related materials. These two (2) days must be requested in advance by the teacher, agreed to with their immediate supervisor, and can only be denied due to a shortage of substitutes on the requested day. Teachers approved for a curriculum day during the school year are expected to be in school during normal working hours.

5. Teachers in Paragraphs 1., 2., and 3. above will not be assigned to a duty block while assigned to teaching 6 blocks/classes.
