

Need Help? Find it Here!

Below is a list of ways to get help if you are struggling in a class - you can choose from tutoring help, tutorial and even some online websites for support.

Block 5 Tutorial

- Free!
- Smaller groups with your classroom teacher
- Mondays, Wednesdays & Thursdays after school
- Late bus available – don't forget to sign up online for the late bus!

Science Honor Society Tutoring

- Free!
- To request a tutor:
 - Send an email to Science National Honor Society at snhs@hcrhs.org.
 - Provide your name, your email, your phone number, the subject for which you would like help and the best day/time to be tutored.

Math Honor Society Tutoring

- Free!
- To request a tutor:
 - Send an email to mathtutor@hcrhs.org
 - Provide your name, your email, your phone number, the subject for which you would like help and the best day/time to be tutored.
 - If you do not hear back within a week's time, contact Mr. Wasserman at ewasser@hcrhs.org

Foreign Language Honor Society Tutoring

- Free! Speak to your World Language teacher about how to request a peer tutor.

National Honor Society Tutoring

- Free!
- To request a tutor:
 - Send an email to nhstutor@hcrhs.org
 - Provide your name, your email, your phone number, the subject for which you would like help and the best day/time to be tutored.
 - If you do not hear back within a week's time, contact your counselor.

Khan Academy

- Online resources with free video tutorials
- Additional help for SAT practice
- Provides practice problems and video “lessons” for a variety of subject areas including:
 - Math
 - Science
 - Economics and Finance
 - Arts and Humanities
 - Computing
 - SAT test prep (select NEW SAT)

Online Help

- Study Skills help - <http://www.how-to-study.com/>

Private Tutoring

- To request a list of for-pay individual tutors, please contact your counselor.

Document for Homework and Study Tips

- <http://www.hcrhs.k12.nj.us/campus-life/counseling/homework-help/index.aspx>