Youth & Government

The Hunterdon Central Youth and Government delegation would like to recognize the following members for the accolades that they received at this year's state conference, held on April 19-25. Alison Cedarbaum presided over the conference as youth governor. Tia Sanjeev received the Perseverance Award for her role in the Crisis Co-op. Bradyn Quintard received the Outstanding Legislation award. Jon Cote, Julia Granato, and Fabby Rincon were recognized as the Outstanding Statesperson in their committees. Tia Sanjeev, Lauren Shaban, Bradyn Quintard, Selam Ambaw, Jon Cote, and Julia Granato all passed legislation in their chambers. Natu Ambaw and Surya Narla were elected officers for the 2022 conference. Surya Narla, Jon Cote, Alison Cedarbaum, Keshav Viradia, Tia Sanjeev, Madison Law, and Joey Farrell were all selected to attend the Conference on National Affairs or were identified as alternate delegates. Dimitri Henry (HC Class of 2015), was awarded the John F. Sly Distinguished Service to the Youth of New Jersey award, recognizing his longstanding commitment to the Youth and Government program. Finally, the Hunterdon Central delegation received the designation of Outstanding Delegation.

Class of 2021 (see attached flyer) YARD SIGN As senior year is winding down it is time to start thinking about graduation for the Class of 2021! To commemorate graduation, the Senior Class Council would like to sell yard signs. It is a great way to recognize and support graduates. The proceeds from purchasing a sign will go towards senior class activities. SALE ENDS ON MAY 2. Below is the link: <https://hcrhs2021signs.itemorder.com/sale>

Class of 2021 (see attached flyer) COWBELL

Let's make some noise here at HC! This year the senior class will be fundraising by selling cowbells. These cowbells are great for graduation parades, virtual ceremonies, after on-field graduation, and making school spirit known at sporting events. All cowbells can be personalized and fit for all grades. Moreover, they make for a unique keepsake; something that will always bring back the memories from here at HC. In addition, the order site is provided for your convenience. The deadline for this fundraiser will be May 15th.
